

Subject Teachers:

- Comments should provide a summary of the student's performance throughout the year, based on subject-specific grade descriptors.
- Comments should include predicted grade, considering all assessed components.
- Reference to Mock Exam performance (all papers assessed) must be explicitly included.
- Add one recommendation for improvement, focused on a specific criterion, topic, or type of task that will support progress in final exams.
- Minimum comment length: 100 words

Homeroom Tutors:

- Comments should address the student's overall performance in Mocks, future academic or personal plans, and what they need to focus on moving forward.
- Comments must be personalised and reflect your individual knowledge of the student.
- Add one recommendation for improvement, focused on
- Minimum comment length: 100 words.

Subject Example:

It was a great pleasure to teach Yelizaveta during the Diploma Program, watching her commendable achievements throughout the course. When analysing the text Yelizaveta can showcase a strong understanding and appreciation of the intricate interplay between form and content. Her responses consistently exhibit thoughtful analysis and evaluation, indicating a deep engagement question. In both oral and written expression, Yelizaveta consistently displays a high level of proficiency. Furthermore, her work usually exhibits an adequate degree of accuracy and clarity, which enhances the effectiveness of her arguments and interpretations. As a result she scored 4 in her Paper 1 and 5 in her Paper 2 Mock exam. I wish Yelizaveta all the best in the upcoming examination and I am sure that she will be able to achieve good results.

Recommendation: It is important for Yelizaveta to revise the main literary aspects of the text analysis for successful performance during final examination.

Homeroom Example:

Joshua has shown consistent focus and organisation throughout the term, demonstrating excellent time management and a strong sense of responsibility. He has balanced his academic work with extracurricular activities effectively, always meeting deadlines and maintaining a high standard of performance. His dedication and effort are clearly reflected in his academic results, which continue to be strong across subjects. Joshua's ability to manage multiple responsibilities with maturity and discipline will serve him well as he moves forward.

Recommendation: As Final exams approach, Joshua should continue with focused revision while ensuring he takes adequate rest to maintain his overall well-being and perform at his best.